Lake Worth Sailing Club Est. 1935

August 2013

Commodore's Corner

Time to reflect and time to look forward, as 2013 speeds by and the summer is coming to an end, we have had a lot of fun and made a lot of new friends. With the increase in membership and more members getting a little more active and the water level dropping, our slip situation is at a critical state. To that end the Board has started the process of finding both short and long term solutions. To bring you all up to speed we are looking at dredging to the west of the west dock and also the island that has developed over the last couple of years just east of the east dock. The Lake Worth Dredging project will help with some of the east dock issues, but we are not sure how much. The west dock area is of most concern as the water drops we are going to lose access to the inner most slips. This is not a good situation as we already have a waiting list of 6 members who want a slip but none are currently available. Please give the Board some time to work the slip situation out as we are exploring all options and have received many suggestions, which are always welcome.

Hurry up Larry
Move that soap box over and let's go sailing. We have a whole lot of racing and other social activities planned. Please check out the coming soon section on the following page.

I am also extremely proud of our club for the way in which everybody pitched in and made our first "Wounded Heroes of Texas" sailing class a huge success. Roy is again working with the Dallas and Fort Worth VA's putting together a fall course; please see myself or Roy for more information or to lend a hand or boat. Thank you to all for the support and assistance you all give me and the board as we move forward in 2013.
